IN PARTNERSHIP WITH
NCC

“We work purposefully to reduce both our own and our customers’ environmental impact and continuously refine our offerings with additional products and solutions for sustainability. Therefore, we are very excited about being a partner of the CIA Program and hopeful about finding solutions that can be a driver towards a more sustainable future within construction”

- NCC
What you get

Would you like to further develop your business together with corporates and entrepreneurs from Denmark and Sweden?...

NCC is one of the leading construction and property development companies in the Nordic region, with sales of nearly SEK 58 billion and 15,500 employees. For them, efficient construction at the right price and with as little impact on the climate as possible is a key issue for the future.

They are therefore committed to improving construction methods and collaborative processes and reducing energy consumption.

Balder is a versatile property company with 14 years of experience and more than 600 employees. They own the entire value chain: everything from the construction of new properties to the rental and subsequent management of these.

They strive to build sustainable properties and several of their newbuilds feature sustainable rainwater management, waste sorting, low-energy windows and appliances with a minimum A+ energy rating.

FOJAB Architects is one of Sweden’s leading architectural firms with more than 140 qualified employees and offices in Malmö, Stockholm and Helsingborg. Their business is to create and develop architecture in a creative process in the form of urban environments, buildings, landscapes and interior design.

Joining the program will be internationally recognized expert in Computational Design, Petra Jenning, who is also responsible FOJABcode, a development platform that investigates how digital development can shape the construction process.
